

Coffee Shops

Main Street Café

Right across the street from us.

Open until 4:00. Have an outdoor patio if the weather cooperates.

Have a couple of rooms upstairs that people seem to use for lunch meetings.

Serve breakfast and lunch as well as coffee and snacks.

Coffee is Free Trade

Modern Bakery

Just down MacKenzie. Turn right out the hall entrance.

Serves some of the most decadent and delicious baking ever!

Also have some very interesting lunch and breakfast items and yummy snacks.

Saturday is bread baking day so be prepared to stand in line.

In fact, be prepared to stand in line anytime.

Coffee is Free Trade

Outside seating if weather cooperates.

Dose

Two blocks down MacKenzie, then turn right on First St.

A new coffee shop (Australian Bistro type) opened a few months ago by an Australian couple.

Have had mixed reviews but they seem to do a good business.

Conversations

At the corner of First and MacKenzie

Serves lunch and some baked goodies.

Comfortable and relatively quiet.

Lots of coffee “clatches”.

Food is good and reasonable

La Baguette

On Victoria Road behind Save On Foods

Wonderful food; artisan breads

Free Trade coffee

Homemade Gelato, baked goods

After Hours Socialization

Regent Hotel

Has a Pub and a Lounge. You can have quiet conversations (usually) in the lounge or you can go into the Pub for some more strenuous entertainment.

Pub food is available in both bars.

A complimentary shuttle is available for any who would like to stay a little longer at the social scene or just don't have a ride back to their place. A tip may be given to the driver.

The Last Drop

Straight down Third Street, part of the Powder Spring Inn

Food is only served until 9:00 but sometimes have chips and such available.
